EASTERN CAPE

The Eastern Cape of South Africa has been dubbed the ‘wild’ province because of its expanses of untouched beach, bush and forest. As Nelson Mandela’s home province, this region is an area with some enticing attractions, which include the Addo Elephant National Park, with the densest elephant population in the world; the dramatic Wild Coast; the culture capital of South Africa, Grahamstown; and, of course, Mandela’s home at Qunu.

The two largest cities within the Eastern Cape are East London and Port Elizabeth – both as warm and welcoming as each other.

FUN PLACES

- Brookes Hill
- Hole In The Wall
- Kowie River Chalets

FUN THINGS TO DO

- # Visit the biggest pineapple in the world at Bathurst and pick up some delicious homemade jams and pickles.
- # The Mpekweni River Mouth offers hours of fun for the family. One can dune board, paddle boats and canoe.
- # Cruise up the Kowie River from the Small Boat Harbour and relax on the river banks while enjoying a braai.
- # Soak up the sun, boogie-board and enjoy mesmerising sunsets at Kelly’s Beach and Kidds Beach.

WESTERN CAPE

The Western Cape is a region of stunning natural beauty, shaped by two bodies of water – the Indian and Atlantic Ocean. There are a range of spectacular sites to see in this region, a majorly popular holiday destination within South Africa. Discover iconic sites such as Table Mountain, Cape culture and its gorgeous cuisine, as well as the welcoming local hospitality.
