Air France – KLM to adjust schedule from/to South Africa due to COVID-19 pandemic

The ongoing coronavirus Covid-19 crisis has forced Air France-KLM to reduce its flight capacity by almost 90%. This reduction impacts the flights from/to South Africa and are expected to last until the end of May for Air France and until the end of June for KLM.

- All Air France flights between Johannesburg and Paris & Cape Town and Paris remain suspended until 31st May 2020.
- All KLM flights between Cape Town and Amsterdam remain suspended until 3rd July 2020.
- KLM flights between Johannesburg to Amsterdam will be resumed after the lockdown ends.

Per 01st May 2020, KLM expects to operate 3 flights per week between Johannesburg and Amsterdam. This schedule is valid until 3rd July 2020.

Flight number	Routing	Frequency	Departure time (LT)	Arrival time (LT)
KL591	AMS – JNB	Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday	18h20	05h05 (+1)
KL592	JNB – AMS	Wednesday, Friday and Sunday	20h40	07h50 (+1)

Please note that the schedule overviews might be subject to change due to unforeseeable operational or regulatory reasons.

As the situation is constantly changing, Air France – KLM will continue to monitor the situation will adjust our flight schedule as and when required. The Air France schedule for June and onwards and the KLM schedule for July and onwards will be communicated once confirmed.
