WHERE/WHAT IS SIRINCE??

Şirince (pronounced Shirinje) is a quaint village on the west coast of Turkey about 1 hour drive from Izmir and 15 mins from the famous ruins of Ephesus.

Şirince is Turkish for “cute” and the name does not disappoint.

The fertile soil has made the area a haven for delicious fruits & nuts, as well as vineyards & olives orchards. In fact, the locals are proud of the wine produced in this region and the olive oil is “to-die-for”!

The hotel features a marbled swimming pool with water from the hotel's own spring.
