MORE ISLAND

INVIGORATING THE SOUL AND SPIRIT OF OUR RESORTS.

Dear Partners,

With over 45 years' of heritage, we have pioneered luxury tourism in Mauritius, positively impacting our environment and local communities. I am extremely proud to introduce Sunlife, a revival of the soul and spirit of Sun Resorts whilst creating exciting, new holiday experiences, all celebrating Mauritian culture and each of our hotels' unique identities. We have also focused on responding to evolving travellers' expectations. This evolution includes the newly launched 'Come Alive Collection' – a range of unique in resort experiences for guests to enjoy.

We also aspire to being a strong employer brand with an inspiring purpose that attracts new talents and motivates our teams. Sunlife is looking to the future celebrating a life in the sun, and a life enjoyed with the inherent magic of our beautiful island.

I take this opportunity to thank you for your ongoing support and look forward with optimism to sharing this new chapter for Sunlife, with you.

Kind regards,

Francois Eynaud, Sunlife's Chief Executive Officer
